III. RULES DISCUSSION

Action Taken: Ms. Phillips moved to open Rule 64B7-28, F.A.C. for discussion at the next General Business Meeting of the Board. Motion seconded by Ms. Nixon, which carried unanimously.

Action Taken: Ms. Wasylyna moved to open Rule 64B7-26.010, F.A.C. for discussion at the next General Business Meeting of the Board. Motion seconded by Mr. Brooks, which carried unanimously.

A. 64B7-30.002 F.A.C., Discipline

Counsel summarized the rationale for setting ranges for each offense.

The Board offered the following amendments to the proposed language in discussion:

- (b) Revocation as a maximum penalty for first offense
- (c) Range of reprimand to revocation; no separation of first and second offenses.
- (h) Range of $100.00 fine and reprimand to $2500.00 fine for first offense; second offense as proposed
- (i) Reduce first offense to $500.00; second offense as proposed
- (l) $1000 fine to revocation; no separation of first and second offenses
- (p) Raise first offense maximum penalty fine to $2500.00 to match (h)
- (q) All offenses in subsection penalty range of reprimand to revocation

Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Nixon moved to authorize counsel to begin the process of promulgation of the rule language as proposed, with amendments as indicated on the record. Motion seconded by Ms. Wasylyna, which carried unanimously.

Additional Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Nixon moved that the rule language as proposed would not impact small business, as disciplinary guidelines do not create additional fees or costs to licensees not subject to discipline. Motion seconded by Mr. Brooks, which carried unanimously.

Additional Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Nixon moved that the rule language as proposed could not be included as minor violations, as disciplinary guidelines fall outside the offenses that could be considered minor violations. Motion seconded by Mr. Brooks, which carried unanimously.

B. 64B7-29, F.A.C., Apprenticeship

Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Nixon moved to authorize counsel to begin the process of promulgation of the rule language as proposed. Motion seconded by Ms. Phillips, which carried unanimously.

Additional Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Nixon moved that the rule language as proposed would not impact small business, as the rule language proposed clarifies requirements for apprenticeship certification and streamlines the administration of the massage therapy apprenticeship in Florida. Motion seconded by Mr. Brooks, which carried unanimously.

Additional Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Nixon moved that the rule language as proposed could not be included as minor violation, as requirements for certification do not include violations. Motion seconded by Mr. Brooks, which carried unanimously.

D. 64B7-32, F.A.C., Board Approved Massage School

Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Wasylyna moved to authorize counsel to begin the process of promulgation of the rule language as proposed. Motion seconded by Mr. Brooks, which carried unanimously.

Additional Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Havard moved that the rule language as proposed would not impact small business, as the rule language proposed clarifies requirements for Board approved schools and streamlines the application process and administration of records for Board approved schools in Florida. Motion seconded by Mr. Brooks, which carried unanimously.

Additional Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Nixon moved that the rule language as proposed could not be included as minor violation, as requirements for Board approved schools do not include violations. Motion seconded by Mr. Brooks, which carried unanimously.

C. 64B7-25, F.A.C., Examination

Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Phillips moved to authorize counsel to begin the process of promulgation of the rule language as proposed. Motion seconded by Ms. Nixon, which carried unanimously.

Additional Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Wasylyna moved that the rule language as proposed would not impact small business, as the rule language proposed clarifies requirements for licensure by examination, and opens additional pathways to licensure for applicants by endorsement. Motion seconded by Mr. Brooks, which carried unanimously.

Additional Action Taken: After discussion, Ms. Nixon moved that the rule language as proposed could not be included as minor violation, as requirements for licensure do not include violations. Motion seconded by Mr. Brooks, which carried unanimously.
