Action Taken: Ms. Nixon moved to approve the reimbursement of any cost of travel for Ms. Burke-Wammack's participation in the Florida Kick Start Massage Summit. Motion seconded by Ms. Phillips, which passed unanimously.

NEW BUSINESS

Ms. Phillips asked about the status of the continuing education courses previously pulled from the October 23-24, 2014 General Business Meeting agenda. Ms. Alday stated that any materials received from CE Broker would be included on the January 22-23, 2015 General Business Meeting agenda, but that some of those providers were approved based on 64B7-28.010, F.A.C. and would not have provided documentation at time of approval.

Mr. Walker advised the board that he was receiving numerous inquiries regarding electronic fingerprinting status from fellow massage therapists. Ms. Alday addressed the board on an upcoming report that will allow licensees who have been fingerprinted to verify their results have been received by the board office. This report will be available on the Florida Board of Massage Therapy website and include the names and license numbers of individuals whose results have been received.

The meeting adjourned approximately 10:10 a.m.
